

Ritual to Obtain Love from a Specific Person

Materials Needed:

- A pink candle (symbolizing love and affection)
- A photo of the person or a piece of paper with their name written on it
- Incense (rose, jasmine, or vanilla to attract love)
- A small piece of paper and a pen
- A small box or a pink/red fabric pouch
- Rose essential oil (optional)
- Dried rose petals (optional)

Preparation:

1. Choose a quiet moment when you won't be disturbed. Light the incense to purify the space and create a soothing atmosphere.
2. Place the pink candle in front of you, along with the photo or paper with the person's name.
3. Take a few minutes to focus on your intention. Visualize the person clearly and the love you wish to share with them.

Steps of the Ritual:

1. Lighting the Candle:
  - Light the candle while saying aloud or in your mind: "This flame represents the love I wish to ignite between [person's name] and me. May it burn gently and passionately, guiding our hearts toward one another."
2. Writing the Intention:
  - Take the piece of paper and write the person's name. Below it, write a positive and loving phrase that expresses your desire, for example: "May [person's name] feel love and affection for me, and may our relationship be harmonious and filled with happiness."
  - If you wish, you can add a drop of rose essential oil to the paper to strengthen the energy of love.
3. Visualization:
  - Close your eyes and visualize the person with you in a happy and loving situation. Imagine feelings of joy, connection, and mutual love. Feel these emotions as if they were already real.
4. Charging the Intention:
  - Fold the paper into small pieces and place it in the box or fabric pouch. If you have dried rose petals, add them as well to enhance the energy of love.
  - Hold the box or pouch in your hands and say: "I charge this intention with love and light. May the energy of the universe guide [person's name] to me, in respect and harmony."

5.

Closing the Ritual:

- Thank the universe, your spiritual guides, or any higher power you believe in for their assistance.
- Allow the candle to burn out completely if possible, or gently extinguish it while saying: "I release this intention into the universe, with love and gratitude."
- Place the box or pouch in a special place, near your bed or somewhere you often spend time, to keep the energy close to you.

Additional Tips:

- Repeat this ritual for several days, preferably during the waxing moon phase, to strengthen the energy.
- Stay open to signs and opportunities that may arise in your daily life.
- Always respect the free will of the person involved. This ritual is meant to attract love, not to force or manipulate anyone's feelings.
