

Red Magic Ritual: Eternity Love Spell

Materials Needed:

- 2 red candles (symbolizing passion and love)
- 1 blank piece of paper
- 1 red pen or ink pen
- 1 red ribbon (about 12 inches long)
- 1 photo of you and the person involved (or a personal object of theirs)
- Rose or jasmine essential oil (for love)
- Rose or vanilla incense (to attract love)
- A small bowl or dish
- Spring water or rose water

Preparation:

1. Choose a quiet time when you won't be disturbed. Ideally, perform this ritual during a full moon or on a Friday, the day associated with Venus, the planet of love.
2. Purify your space by lighting the incense and letting the smoke waft around the room. Visualize a white cleansing light removing all negative energy.
3. Place the two red candles on your altar or workspace, one on the left and one on the right. In the center, place the photo or personal object.

Ritual Steps:

1. Lighting the Candles:
 - Apply a drop of essential oil to each candle, starting from the base and moving toward the wick, while visualizing the love you wish to attract or strengthen.
 - Light the candles, saying: "Flame of passion, flame of eternity, may our love burn for infinity."
2. Writing Your Desire:
 - Take the blank piece of paper and write the name of the person involved in red ink. Below it, write your wish, for example: "May our love be eternal, deep, and sincere. May our hearts be united forever."
 - Fold the paper three times toward you, keeping your intention clear in your mind.
3. Binding the Love:
 - Take the red ribbon and wrap it around the photo or personal object while reciting: "With this ribbon, I bind our souls, so that our love may never end. May our connection be eternal, strong, and unbreakable."
 - Tie a knot in the ribbon to symbolize your union.

Offering to the Universe:

Place the folded paper in the small bowl or dish. Pour a little spring water or rose water over it, saying:
"Pure water, source of life, carry my wish to the universe. May the love I desire become real and eternal."

5.

Visualization:

Sit quietly and close your eyes. Visualize yourself and the person involved together, happy, loving, and united forever. Feel the joy, peace, and passion of this eternal love.

Closing the Ritual:

Thank the universe, the energies of love, and your spiritual guides for their assistance. Say: "I thank the universe and the forces of love for hearing my call. May this spell manifest for the highest good of all."

Allow the candles to burn out completely if possible, or extinguish them gently, saying: "May this flame continue to burn in our hearts."

Keep the photo or object tied with the ribbon in a safe place, preferably near your bed or in a secret drawer.
